In Jacob’s dream, angels went up and down a ladder to bring him God’s word (Genesis 28:12-15). Thank you, God, that we need not climb up to you because you graciously come to us. In the words of Jacob: “How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God!” (Genesis 28:17). Welcome to worship.

If you are visiting us today, we ask that you complete a Visitor Registration slip (yellow form) found at the end of each pew. You may place the visitor registration form in the offering plate or give it to one of the Deacons as you leave the worship service this morning. Please come back and worship with us again soon.

Large print (sight saver) bulletins are available. Just ask an usher!

+ Soli Deo Gloria +

We thank Cindy Houser for sharing her gift of music with us this morning as she is filling in for Jody Paschal. May the Lord continue to bless her!

We also thank Tim Magill for preaching this morning. May the Lord bless him as he continues his studies for the ministry.

We send best wishes and God’s richest blessings to all of our members who are celebrating birthdays this week—Sean Sielschott, Lukas Bobay, Jordan Buuck, Logan Linnemeier, Mike Conrad, Lannister Everett, Ted Blomenberg, Becca Evans, Deb Gallmeyer, and Mike Miller.

Congratulations to Chad & Jill Baumann, Zach & Heather Stoppenhagen, Linda Keuneke & Paul Knott, Aaron & Sarah Rhymer, Zac & Stacy Lichtle, Andrew & April Melcher, Richard & Ruth Hartmann, and Brian & Kristie Schlemmer who are celebrating wedding anniversaries this week. May our Heavenly Father continue to guide and bless each of these couples through life’s joys and challenges.

May the Great Physician give peace, good health, and strength to all who are in need of His healing hand. We especially remember in our prayers Mike Baker (Shelly Kiefer's dad), George Geyer (home), Lanny Thieme, Nancy Gardner (Keith's mother), Nora Rauner (Michelle Scheumann's mother), Kevin Mahlen, Ruth Brege (Pastor Bill Brege's wife), Kelly Baumann (daughter-in-law of Sam & Judy Baumann), and Cathy Terhune (Sherril Bradtmueller's daughter).

We welcome into church membership Zach Townsend. Zach completed adult instruction and will also be baptized today. May the Lord continue to guide and bless him throughout his life.

We remember in our prayers the family and friends of Eileen Miller (sister of Jim & Jerry Bultemeier and Rosie Bultemeier) who was called to her heavenly home on Thursday, July 20, and will be given Christian burial this afternoon. There will be viewing at Zion Lutheran in Decatur one hour prior to the 1:30 p.m. services. May the comforting arms of our Savior be around those who mourn, reminding them of that great day when all believers will be reunited in heaven.

We remember those who are presently serving our country (active duty or in the Guard)—Jason Putteet, Alan Bergdall, Dean Brandt, Derek Schultz, Jacob Stoppenhagen, Karl Duerk serving in Qatar (Christine Bultemeier's nephew), Jordon Head (Keith & Mitzi Gardner's son-in-law and Maddy & George's brother-in-law), Jacob Lee, Sam Conrad (Germany), Chandler Bultemeier (Waldo & Rosie Bultemeier's grandson), and Chad Hall (Doris Conrad's son-in-law). May the Lord protect and guide them in their missions.

You will find our weekly "Time in the Word" study guide, A Christian's Top Treasure, in today's bulletin.

Worship for Shut-Ins is on Sunday mornings at 7 a.m. on 21.2 and at 8 a.m. on Frontier 9 or channel 21.3. The show also airs on Sunday mornings at 11:30 a.m. on Comcast 252 and at 4 p.m. on Sundays and 10 a.m. on Mondays on Comcast 55 or Frontier 25. "But We Are Different" based on Romans 8:18-25 is the Rev. Dr. Daniel Brege's sermon for today. We Christians live in a fallen, corrupt world. There appears to be little difference between us and those who are non-Christian (Christ's good plants and the weeds in today's parable look alike.). BUT our future glory far outweighs present sufferings...BUT we will be revealed as different/saved...BUT now in Christ we have hope...BUT our bodies, in Christ will rise. For the most up-to-date information, you can check out their website at www.worshipforshutins.org. You can also watch this program on line or receive it by DVD's.

Can't make it to church? Listen to WZBD (92.7 FM), tuning in at 9:05 a.m. to hear our service live. You can also listen to the broadcast over the Internet by logging on to our website (www.zionfriedheim.org) and "Click here to listen to Zion's worship service on Sundays ..."

The sign-up sheet for greeters for 2017 can be found in the south entranceway. Why not pick an open date and sign up to greet! Casey Nidlinger is in charge of finding greeters for the months of July and August. If you have questions, contact Casey.

Board of Stewardship's Food for Thought – There are two kinds of people. People who share nothing and serve no one act as terminals. They will end life unhappy, empty, and stagnant. Our purpose is to be channels so that God's love and goodness may flow through us. By His grace, God transforms us into generous givers willing to love, share, and serve others. Individuals who act as channels of God's love and gifts put self aside. Jesus said, "Whoever believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water' " (John 7:38). God refills serving people with more love, time, gifts, and abilities to share with others. "And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work" (2 Corinthians 9:8).

The Meals of Grace freezer is empty! If you would like to make a main dish, soup, casserole, dessert, etc. to place in the freezer, it would be much appreciated. Meals for one or two are especially needed. Don't forget to put a sticker on the food with the name of the dish and the date placed in the freezer. Thank you for the support of this program.

To my Friedheim Family, I'm not sure if I can adequately say "Thank You" to my church family for their support during Don's illness and when he went to meet the Lord. The words of encouragement, the visits, the wonderful food shared with us, and the support shown to our family was so supportive and graciously overwhelming. A special thank you goes out to Pastor Dahling for his support during these difficult days. Although it is hard for those of us left behind, the Lord will get us through and we all know that Don is in a better place. Again, THANK YOU! – The family of Don Gehres

To our Friedheim friends – Thank you, Pastor Dahling, and all the members of Friedheim Church for the numerous gifts of God's grace extended to us after Lon's accident. We were grateful for your constant prayers for him and our family during the lengthy time that Lon was hospitalized. We did not know at that time how our sovereign God would choose to answer all of our prayers. However, we did begin to learn how to accept His perfect will. We are also grateful for your gifts of financial support, both individually and as a church body. It helped us through a very difficult time. The gift of your friendship was the most precious to us, especially as demonstrated by your visits and cards to Lon. These meant so much to him and he really looked forward to them. Thank you for every blessing, dear friends in Christ. – The Lon Buuck family

The Readings – God's Faithful People

Isaiah 44:6-8 – The faithful believe in one true God – Thus says the LORD, the King of Israel and his Redeemer, the LORD of hosts: I am the first and I am the last; besides me there is no god. Who is like me? Let him proclaim it. Let him declare and set it before me, since I appointed an ancient people. Let them declare what is to come, and what will happen. Fear not, nor be afraid; have I not told you from of old and declared it? And you are my witnesses! Is there a God besides me? There is no Rock; I know not any.”

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Romans 8:18-27 – The faithful have the Spirit intercede for them – For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God. For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of him who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation has been groaning together in the pains of childbirth until now. And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. For in this hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience. Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words. And he who searches hearts knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the thirteenth chapter.

C Glory be to Thee, O Lord. (to be sung)

Matthew 13:24-30, 36-43 – The faithful enter heaven – [Jesus] put another parable before them, saying, “The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field, but while his men were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat and went away. So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared also. And the servants of the master of the house came and said to him, ‘Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have weeds?’ He said to them, ‘An enemy has done this.’ So the servants said to him, ‘Then do you want us to go and gather them?’ But he said, ‘No, lest in gathering the weeds you root up the wheat along with them. Let both grow together until the harvest, and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, Gather the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn.” ... Then he left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples came to him, saying, “Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field.” He answered, “The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man. The field is the world, and the good seed is the children of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the close of the age, and the reapers are angels. Just as the weeds are gathered and burned with fire, so will it be at the close of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all law-breakers, and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear.

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise be to Thee, O Christ. (to be sung)

We will recite the Apostles’ Creed found on page 192.

The Power of the Word

The Word of God has been described in many ways, but each description carries the connotation of worth and value and power. The Word, we read in Hebrews 4:12, is “living and active, sharper than any double-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart.” God, through the prophet Isaiah declared that the Word that goes out of His mouth “shall accomplish that which I purpose, and shall succeed in the thing for which I sent it” (Isaiah 55:11). By the word of His mouth, God created the heavens and the earth. God Himself called His word a fire and a hammer (Jeremiah 23:29). In Ephesians, Paul wrote about the Armor of God, topping off all the defensive weapons God gives us an offensive weapon, “the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God” (Ephesians 6:17).

In his letter to the church in Corinth, Paul wrote, “But we have this treasure in jars of clay, to show that the surpassing power belongs to God and not to us” (2 Corinthians 4:7). This great treasure is God’s Word. It lives inside us; it strengthens us; it encourages us; it gives us hope; it never fades away; it enables us to persevere. It gives us life and salvation. Indeed this is a treasure!

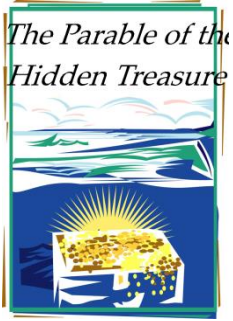

Many don’t know that this treasure exists. They may have it beautifully leather-bound and on a shelf in their homes, but they don’t realize they have a priceless treasure in their possession. It is up to us who have this treasure to share it, for it can never be used up, never decrease in value, and never lose its newness and vitality.

Time in the Word – Proper 12

July 24-29, 2017

A Christian's Top Treasure

Three parables of the nature of the kingdom of God are told by the Savior in the Gospel for this coming week. Three parables are directed to the disciples concerning the kingdom. The first two deal with the kingdom as being of top value worthy of any sacrifice to gain it. The third parable concerns are similar to wheat and the weeds parable, the separation of the good and the wicked on Judgment Day. Jesus asks the disciples if they understand these parables. They claimed that they understood. Consequently, they were to be scribes trained for the kingdom who bring out of the treasure the old and the new.

The old truths are to be applied to the new conditions in the world. These are addressed in our Epistle and Old Testament lessons for the coming week.

Collect for Proper 12 – Almighty and everlasting God, give us an increase of faith, hope, and love that, receiving what You have promised, we may love what You have commanded; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Monday, July 24, 2017 – Psalm 105:2-6 – This is the Psalm portion from which the Introit for next Sunday is taken. The antiphon is taken from verse 1, “Oh give thanks to the Lord; call upon his name; make known His deeds among the peoples!” The psalmist exhorts us to worship the Lord. Thus, we are called upon to give thanks to God through our worship and praise. When we call upon God and as we give thanks, our worship shall be blessed. Praise and prayer are the two expressions of our worship. As we recall the many acts of kindness the Lord has given to us, we will trust in Him and share with others what He has done. We will make known among the people His many deeds.

Tuesday, July 25, 2017– Deuteronomy 7:6-9 – The Lord is the faithful God, keeping His covenant of love. We are loved and blessed because the Lord first loved us. Yet this love must be reciprocated by His people to others. Thus in the New Testament we are reminded, “We love because He first loved us” {1 John 4:19}.

Wednesday, July 26, 2017 – Romans 8: 28-39 – The Father spared not His own Son but gave Him up for us all. These words are read at many Christian funerals. They have comforted many troubled hearts. They have soothed and given encouragement to many who are troubled. St. Paul’s words are sure. No charge can be brought against the Christian because the Father has already pronounced a verdict! Not guilty! How so? No one can condemn God’s elect. Christ has died for you. He is alive at the right hand of God. He is interceding for you.

Thursday, July 27, 2017 – Matthew 13:44-52 – Christ treasures the world, and so He redeems it. Jesus likens the kingdom of God to a treasure, something of supreme worth.

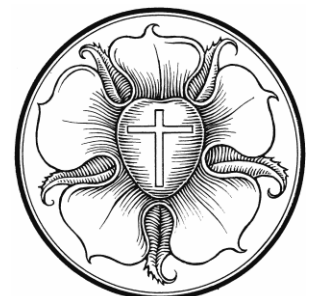

It is a treasure of infinite worth because it is the kingdom of God. This includes Jesus, the priceless treasure, the riches of grace, and the wealth of God’s love. This treasure is discovered by accident. It is always found where no one expected it.

The kingdom of God can be a surprise. It may come in unexpected ways and places. Must we ask whether the average Christian considers Christianity the top treasure?

Both the farmer and the merchant sold all their goods to get the treasure. This implies that the two men considered all their possessions to be inferior to the treasure or the pearl. It was a matter of establishing priorities. Because the treasure and pearl were evaluated as the best, the price of total sell-out, or exchanging all other possessions, was considered worth the price.

When a person finds a treasure, how can he help but be overjoyed? If a merchant has been looking for the perfect pearl for years and then finds it, is there any wonder that he would be as happy as can be? Many church members lack the joy of being Christians. They are not happy about their religion. Could this be the reason? They have not found the treasure or the pearl of Christ.

Friday, July 28, 2017 – Psalm 125 – This Psalm is suggested for next Sunday. This psalm speaks of Israel’s peace in testimony, prayer, and benediction. Bible scholars believe it was written after the exile when those held in Babylonian captivity were allowed to return to the Jewish homeland. This psalm was most likely prayed as part of the liturgy in the Jewish worship service. Thus, the Psalms we pray in worship reach back into the Old Testament. Through the centuries, our prayers have remained constant.

Saturday, July 29, 2017 – Joshua 24:16 – This passage is the inspiration for the hymn, “From God Can Nothing Move Me” {LSB 713}. The people react to Joshua’s commitment to serve the Lord. The people respond, “We will not serve other gods.” If we say of the Lord, “He is our God,” we cannot serve any other.

For blessing on the Word – Lord God, bless Your Word wherever it is proclaimed. Make it a word of power and peace to convert those not yet Your own and to confirm those who have come to saving faith. May Your Word pass from the ear to the heart, from the heart to the lip, and from the lip to the life that, as You have promised, Your Word may achieve the purpose for which You send it; through Jesus Christ, my Lord.

A prayer before we study the Word – Almighty God, our heavenly Father, without Your help our labor is useless, and without Your light our search is in vain. Invigorate the study of Your holy Word that, by due diligence and right discernment, we may establish others and ourselves in Your holy faith.

A prayer for Pentecost 6 – O God, the Protector of all who trust in You, without whom nothing is strong and nothing is holy, increase and multiply Your mercy on us that with You as our Ruler and Guide we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, One God, now and forever .
